

Powwow! Ohcîwin The Origins

POWWOW DANCE STYLES

Complete regalia. Recorded origin stories. Living cultures centred.

27 Indigenous artists & knowledge keepers

152 regalia pieces made and collected

4 documented touring venues after Red Deer

What visitors encounter

- Seven complete regalia connected with Men's Traditional, Men's Fancy, Men's Chicken, Men's Grass, Women's Traditional, Women's Fancy and Women's Jingle.
- Recorded origin stories shared within the exhibition's specific cultural and collaborative scope.
- Indigenous-led interpretation created by Patrick and Marrisa Mitsuing of Powwow Times with Red Deer Museum + Art Gallery.

Recognition

- 2022 Alberta Heritage Awareness Award
- 2022 Richard Martin Exhibition Award
- 2023 MAG received the Robert R. Janes Award for Social Responsibility
- 2024 Shared-authority work presented at The Best in Heritage

Available for Canadian, U.S. and international inquiries

The exhibition has toured to St. Albert, Grande Prairie, Lloydminster and Camrose after its original Red Deer presentation. Museums, galleries, cultural institutions and university museums may request current availability and the complete host-institution prospectus.

A strong fit for

Future temporary-exhibition schedules; museum and public-gallery audiences; university teaching galleries; cultural institutions; and venues prepared for responsible interpretation and care.

Prospectus available on request

Current dates, footprint, components, crates, environmental and security requirements, installation, fees, freight, insurance, accessibility and cross-border feasibility are confirmed with the booking team.

Request availability and the host prospectus

MAG Exhibitions Curator: Kim Verrier

kim.verrier@reddeermuseum.com

Include your institution, location, preferred dates, gallery size and decision timeline.